

Black History Month Teacher's Pack

Linked to National Curriculum - Key Stage 3

Did you know that by the 1760's there could have been between 10,000 -15,000 Black people in London alone. Although in Victorian Britain, most of the black population had arrived enslaved, many individuals gained success in areas such as arts, literature, commerce and contributed greatly to Britain's wealth, culture and heritage and we'll tell some of those stories.

WANT TO TEACH BLACK HISTORY BUT DON'T KNOW HOW TO OR WHERE TO GET RESOURCES?

TALENT MEDIA, publishers of THE OFFICIAL BLACK HISTORY MONTH MAGAZINE have produced a unique and high quality pack which enables teachers to;

- Integrate and incorporate Black History across the year and curriculum

- Teach multicultural inclusive history
- Work within The National Curriculum Inclusion and Diversity Statement to:
 - Plan work that builds on the interests and cultural experiences of pupils
 - Use materials which reflect social and cultural diversity and provide positive images of race, gender and disability
 - Reveal hidden histories of Black people
 - Inform students why Black History Month (UK) has been celebrated every October for over 30 years
 - Share Britain's joint history and heritage

CONTENT

- High quality teacher's pack that can be kept and used as a resource year after year and built on each year
- 4 detailed lesson plans for Key stage 3 on hidden historical figures including Jean Baptiste Belley and Sarah Bonetta Forbes Davies
- Teacher's notes, structured discussions and activities
- A4 laminated full colour worksheets, little need to photocopy
- Full colour glossy poster
- DVD with 5 films Filmed interview with a curator from the National Portrait Gallery
- Copy of BHM (Official Black History Month magazine)

ONLY £24.99 +
P&P PER PACK

KEY STAGE 3

The Life of Sarah Forbes Bonetta Davies

Pic courtesy of National Portrait Gallery

From Slavery to Equality -Jean Baptiste Belley

Pic copyright PhotoRMNI © Gerard Blot

Britain since 1948 - The Windrush Generation

Britain since 1948 - The Black British Experience

Pic copyright Leanne Harris